National Remembrance Event

National Remembrance of the 100th Anniversary of the Enactment of the Chinese Exclusion Act in Canada

June FRI
23 3 - 5
PM ET 2023

Location - The Senate Chamber

On June 23, 2023, the Honourable Senator Yuen Pau Woo, the Honourable Senator Victor Oh and Action! Chinese Canadians Together (ACCT) Foundation will be hosting a National Remembrance event in the Senate of Canada Chamber on the 100th anniversary of the enactment of the Chinese Exclusion Act in Canada.

This event is an opportunity to recognize the longstanding relationship between Chinese Canadians and Indigenous Peoples in Canada, to enhance a sense of pride and belonging, and to take action against racism.

Join the event via livestream from the Senate of Canada building.

- We encourage you to organize a livestream party and invite family and friends to watch the event with you
- The event is an opportunity for community groups to mark the centenary by organizing local livestream viewing events
- Teachers may want to organize a livestream viewing event and use it as an opportunity to inform students about the Exclusion Act. Educational materials will be made available on our website

To register for a viewing invite, as an individual and/or community, please visit:
